He noted that VP Bolyai will head up the NJASCU group of Vice Presidents of Finance and Administration. He reported that NJ public colleges and universities are among the most productive and efficient institutions in the nation based on a national study. OTHER BUSINESS:

Caitlin Grogard and Hilary Goldman, current students representing a larger group, addressed the Board regarding their objection to the elimination of the Performing Arts Theatre Series under the direction of Ed Matthews and Shari Selke. They cited the many benefits, accomplishments, and successes of this program and its contribution to promoting their commitment to campus life. They provided background information including a position letter, fact sheet about the program, letters of concern from various individuals, and a petition objecting to the elimination of the Theatre series under the direction of Ed Matthews and Shari Selke.

Professor Joann Lee, Chair of the Communication Department, applauded the efforts of the students. She said the plans underway in the Department would provide opportunity for students to participate and grow in the theater area. At our sister institutions, theater programs are all intertwined with curriculum. None are stand-alone production units. This supports the greatest opportunity for growth. Professor Lee announced that open auditions are being held for two major productions, and she encouraged the students to participate.

At approximately 1:15 p.m. there being no further business, a motion was made and seconded for the meeting to be adjourned. The motion carried unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,

Donna Santaniello
Assistant to the President and Board of Trustees
